The Effective Teacher	Betty Hoover	Do you know that God is more interested in the teacher than He is in the teacher's lesson. The instrument that He uses to share His Word is of utmost importance. Let's give it "whatever it takes" to be in His hands the very best communicator of divine truth.	Betty Hoover has a wide variety of experience in Christian ministry. She has served as a rural Bible teacher in public schools in Maine and released time classes with New England Fellowship of Evangelicals, taught in public schools in NC, and directed a camp program at Fair Haven Camps in Maine. During her years in Winston-Salem she has been very active in a number of ministries at her home church, Salem	1	04/09/10	8:00 AM	Children's Ministries	253

Helping God's People Live in a XXX Culture	Rick Schatz	All of us live in a hyper-sexualized culture and receive messages about sexuality, marriage and family constantly. These messages are contrary to God's Word and His calling to righteousness, purity and the celebration of God's gift of sexuality within marriage. The workshop will address the nature of our sexualized culture, the messages we receive and how God's people as pastors leaders and laymen can live in	Rick Schatz serves as President of the National Coalition for the Protection of Children and Families. His organization works to preserve and advance the truth of biblical sexuality in a world where technology, marketing and media has offered a pervasive view to the contrary. He and his wife, Sharon, have been married for 42 years and have three sons and seven grandchildren.	Church Leadership	8 04/10/10	2:30 PM C 204

"Safe Money"	Gilbert Peacock	A "safe money" strategy helps you protect the money you need/require vs. money you want/desire. This seminar answers the question is it better to have unlimited gains with unlimited losses, versus limited gains with no losses? Scripture focus is "A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children" (Proverbs 13:22a).		Church Leadership	9 04/10/10	3:45 PM 204
